Top 12 Websites for the Elementary Teacher

1. Educational Resources-Kathy Schrock offers a lot of resources through her website, including teaching tools and information on a variety of subjects. http://school.discovery.com/schrockguide/

2. Educational Resources- This dog has searched everywhere on the net and found everything you need from websites, to worksheets, web quests, and more, all right in front of your nose. This is a must in your favorites. http://www.eduhound.com/

3. Educational Resources-This site offers lesson plans, keeps you up to date on holidays or events you may want to talk to your class about, you can even make worksheets out of your spelling words. http://www.edhelper.com

4. Professional Development- Tech Learning helps teachers stay up to date with technology. It is a great place to see what the latest trends are when implementing technology into the classroom. There are lots of great articles to help the professional educator grow in their field. http://www.techlearning.com/teacher/

5. Social Studies & Science- The Discovery Channel is a fantastic site for teachers to look to when trying to improve their history and science lessons. There are several lessons provided as well as many resources. http://school.discovery.com/

6. Math-Looking for a site that makes math fun and interesting? Do you have students that always finish their math early and could benefit from practicing their math skills? A plus math offers a variety of math games for students to play to help them develop their basic math skills. You can even make worksheets that are geared towards the basic skills for individualized instruction. http://www.aplusmath.com/
7. Math Lesson Plans- Online offers a large variety of great Math resources for a teacher at any grade level.
http://www.enc.org/features/lessonplans/math/

8. Database-Ask Eric seems to have all the answers a teacher needs when looking for educational information. http://www.askeric.org/

10. Search Engine- Ask Jeeves is a great search engine for children to use safely. Students learn how to look up things on the internet and they aren’t bogged down with adult information that they don’t understand. http://www.ajkids.com/

11. Cyber Guides- Cyber guides are a great way to incorporate technology into your lessons. This website has several teacher created cyber guides that are linked to the California state standards. http://www.sdcoe.k12.ca.us/score/cla.html

12. Web Quests- Web quests are also a lot of fun to do with upper grade elementary school students. Participating is an exciting way to build research skills and take the information the student has learned and present it in a way that is meaningful to them. The task, process and evaluation all make it very clear of what the student needs to do. http://webquest.org/